CALL FOR PAPERS – 2026

PRIDE Journal of the Centre for Trans Studies is an annual, peer-reviewed and refereed journal published by the University Institute of Legal Studies, Panjab University, Chandigarh, India.

We are delighted to announce the Call for Papers for the forthcoming volume, scheduled for publication in 2026. Contributions must be submitted by 31st July, 2026 to Editor PRIDE on the e-mail: pride.cts.uils@gmail.com

SCOPE OF THE JOURNAL: The journal aims to publish scholarly interdisciplinary research related to gender diversity, sexuality, experiences & issues of transpersons across time, space and cultures. Thrust areas of the journal are as follows:

- Transgender Rights and Law Analyses of legal recognition, constitutional rights, anti-discrimination frameworks, and policy reforms affecting transgender and gender-diverse communities.
- Social and Cultural Dimensions Research on lived experiences, identity formation, family structures, cultural representation, and the intersection of caste, class, religion, and gender diversity.
- Health and Well-Being Studies on healthcare access, mental health, reproductive rights, and inclusive medical practices for transgender and non-binary individuals.
- Education and Institutional Practices Exploration of inclusive pedagogy, curriculum design, and institutional reforms that promote safe and affirming educational spaces.
- Community Narratives and Activism Documentation of grassroots movements, advocacy strategies, and community-based initiatives that empower transgender voices and challenge systemic barriers.
- Intersectionality and Global Perspectives Comparative and interdisciplinary scholarship that situates trans studies within broader frameworks of human rights, feminism, queer theory, disability studies, and global south perspectives.
